

Joseph the Dreamer.

A Story for Children.

Bible Reference: Genesis 37–50.

Chapter 1: The Special Coat.

Long ago, there lived a boy named Joseph. He was one of Jacob's twelve sons.

Jacob loved all his children, but Joseph was very special to him. One day, Jacob gave Joseph a beautiful coat with many bright colours.

Joseph was very happy.

"Thank you, Father!" he said as he hugged Jacob.

But Joseph's brothers became jealous.

"Why does Joseph get all the attention?" they grumbled.

Their hearts filled with envy.

Chapter 2: Joseph's Amazing Dreams.

One night, Joseph had a strange dream.

In the dream, he saw bundles of wheat standing in a field. Suddenly, all the other bundles bowed down to his bundle.

The next morning Joseph excitedly told his brothers.

"I had a dream!" he said.

His brothers frowned.

"What do you mean?" they asked.

"Does that mean one day we will bow down to you?"

They became even more angry.

Soon Joseph had another dream.

This time the sun, moon, and eleven stars bowed down to him.

His family wondered what these dreams meant.

Joseph did not fully understand, but God was showing him that He had a special plan for his life.

Chapter 3: Sold Into Egypt.

One day, Joseph's brothers were taking care of sheep far from home.

Jacob asked Joseph to check on them.

When the brothers saw Joseph coming, they became angry.

"Here comes the dreamer!" they said.

At first they planned to hurt him, but instead they sold him to traders traveling to Egypt.

Joseph felt sad and scared.

He was far away from home and family.

But even in that difficult moment, God was with Joseph.

Chapter 4: Faithful in Egypt

In Egypt, Joseph became a servant in the house of a man named Potiphar.

Joseph worked hard.

He was honest.

He obeyed God.

Everything Joseph did prospered because God blessed him.

Soon Potiphar trusted Joseph with great responsibility.

Even though Joseph was far from home, he remained faithful.

Chapter 5: Joseph Goes to Prison.

One day Joseph was falsely accused of doing something wrong.

Even though he was innocent, he was thrown into prison.

That seemed very unfair.

Joseph could have become bitter and angry.

But he chose to trust God.

Every day he prayed and remained faithful.

And once again, God blessed him.

Soon the prison keeper trusted Joseph and gave him important duties.

Chapter 6: The King's Dream

Years later, Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, had troubling dreams.

No one could explain them.

Then someone remembered Joseph.

Joseph was brought before Pharaoh.

With God's help, Joseph explained the dreams.

The dreams warned that a famine was coming.

Pharaoh was amazed.

"God is with you," Pharaoh said.

Then Pharaoh made Joseph the ruler of Egypt, second only to himself.

The boy who had once been a slave was now a great leader.

God's plan was coming true.

Chapter 7: A Time of Forgiveness

Many years later, a famine spread across the land.

Joseph's brothers came to Egypt looking for food.

At first they did not recognize Joseph.

But Joseph recognized them.

He could have chosen revenge.

Instead, Joseph chose forgiveness.

With tears in his eyes, he said,

"I am Joseph, your brother."

His brothers were afraid.

But Joseph smiled.

"Do not be afraid. God used everything for good."

Joseph forgave them and welcomed them.

Soon the whole family was reunited.

What Joseph Learned

Joseph learned that:

- God is with us in good times and hard times.
- We should stay faithful even when life is difficult.
- Forgiveness is stronger than revenge.
- God's plans are always greater than our problems.

Lesson for Children

Sometimes things do not go the way we expect.

You may face challenges at school.

You may feel forgotten.

You may have to wait a long time for your dreams.

But remember Joseph.

He trusted God.

He remained faithful.

And God turned his troubles into blessings.

Always remember:

God has a special plan for your life.

Memory Verse.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Jeremiah 29:11

Moral of the Story.

Trust God, stay faithful, forgive others, and never stop believing in your dreams.
