Introduction

Have you ever wondered if God has a special plan for your life?

The story of Joseph teaches us that God is always at work, even when life becomes difficult. Joseph faced jealousy, betrayal, slavery, prison, and many hardships. Yet through every challenge, he trusted God and remained faithful.

God used Joseph's difficulties to prepare him for a greater purpose. His story teaches us about faith, patience, forgiveness, and trusting God's plan.

As you read this book, remember that God has a wonderful plan for you too.

Chapter 1: The Special Coat

Joseph was one of Jacob's twelve sons. Jacob loved all his children, but Joseph was especially dear to him.

One day Jacob gave Joseph a beautiful coat made of many colours. It was a special gift that showed how much Jacob loved him.

Joseph was delighted.

"Thank you, Father!" Joseph said joyfully.

However, Joseph's brothers were not happy. They saw the beautiful coat and became jealous.

"Why does Joseph always get special treatment?" they complained.

Instead of being happy for their brother, they allowed jealousy to grow in their hearts.

God wants us to celebrate the blessings of others rather than become jealous.

Reflection Questions

2. How did Joseph's brothers feel?
3. What happens when jealousy grows in our hearts?
4. How should we respond when others are blessed?

— 1 Corinthians 13:4

Chapter 2: Joseph's Amazing Dreams

One night Joseph had a dream.

In the dream, bundles of wheat stood in a field.
Joseph's bundle stood tall while the others bowed before it.

The next morning Joseph told his brothers.

"I had a dream!" he said excitedly.

His brothers became upset.

"Do you think we will bow down to you one day?"
they asked angrily.

Later Joseph had another dream.

This time the sun, moon, and eleven stars bowed down before him.

Joseph did not fully understand these dreams, but God was showing him that He had a special purpose for his life.

Sometimes God gives us dreams and goals that take many years to become reality.

At first they planned to hurt Joseph. Instead, they sold him to traders traveling to Egypt.

Although he had done nothing wrong, he was sent to prison.

God blessed Joseph even in prison.

Soon the prison keeper trusted Joseph with important duties.

And once again, God blessed him.
Soon the prison keeper trusted Joseph and gave him important duties.

Chapter 6: Joseph Becomes Ruler in Egypt

Years later Pharaoh had troubling dreams.

No one could explain them.

Joseph was brought before Pharaoh.

With God's help, Joseph explained the dreams.

Seven years of plenty would be followed by seven years of famine.

Pharaoh was amazed.

"God is with you," he said.

Pharaoh made Joseph ruler over Egypt, second only to himself.

and could be trusted.
So Pharaoh put Joseph in charge of all of Egypt!
Pharaoh gave Joseph special clothes,
a gold chain, and a ring.
Everyone bowed down to Joseph,
because Pharaoh said,
"Only Joseph will be in charge
after me."
Joseph thanked God in and worked hard to help
the people of Egypt.

Chapter 7: A Time of Forgiveness

Many years later a famine spread across the land.

Joseph's brothers came to Egypt to buy food.

They did not recognize Joseph.

Joseph recognized them.

He could have taken revenge.

Instead, he forgave them.

"I am Joseph, your brother," he said.

His brothers were afraid.

But Joseph reassured them.

"Do not be afraid. God used everything for good."

The family was reunited.
